AFFORDABLE HOUSING PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT APPLICATION

City of Mobile, Alabama
Community & Housing Development
205 Government Street, 5th Floor – South Tower, Rm 508
Mobile, Alabama 36602

The HOME Investment Partnerships Program was authorized by the Cranston-Gonzalez National Affordable Housing Act of 1990 (P.L. 101-625). HOME is a federal block grant program that provides funding to states and localities to be used exclusively for affordable housing activities to benefit low-income households.

HOME funds can be used to finance a wide variety of affordable housing activities that generally fall into four categories: rehabilitation of owner-occupied housing; assistance to home buyers; acquisition, rehabilitation, or construction of rental housing; and tenant-based rental assistance. Projects that use HOME funding must meet certain income targeting and affordability requirements. Specifically, all HOME-assisted housing units must benefit households with incomes at or below 80% of area median income. Additionally, 90% of occupants of HOME assisted rental units must have incomes at or below 60% of area median income. HOME-assisted housing must also meet certain definitions of affordability and must continue to remain affordable to low-income households for a specified period of time. The specific affordability requirements vary according to the type of activity for which funds are used and the amount of HOME funding contributed to the project.

As a Participating Jurisdiction, the City of Mobile is responsible for administration of the HOME Program under which the City receives an annual allocation of federal HOME funds designated for the development of rental and homeownership housing opportunities subject to HOME regulations and HUD requirements. In general, HOME proposals are solicited prior to the beginning of each program year as part of a HUD required Action Plan process. Applications received in the planning process are given initial consideration for budgeting purposes; however, development proposals may be submitted for consideration at any time throughout the year. From time to time the City will issue specific Requests for Proposals under which applications will only be accepted for certain types of projects within a specified timeframe. All proposals will be considered and underwritten in compliance with HUD regulations and requirements. Should the regulations and requirements change at any time, the City reserves the right to alter its Program to ensure said compliance.

The Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program was authorized by the Housing Act of 1974. CDBG is a federal block grant program that provides funding to states and localities to be used for multiple community development purposes which include affordable housing rehabilitation activities to benefit low-income households.

Much like the HOME Program, CDBG funds can be used to finance a wide variety of affordable housing activities that include: rehabilitation of owner-occupied housing; assistance to home buyers; and acquisition or rehabilitation of existing rental housing. Although CDBG has many other eligible activities than are allowed in the HOME Program, CDBG is limited to rehabilitation of existing structures in most instances. Projects that use CDBG funding must meet certain income targeting and affordability requirements. Specifically, all single family CDBG-assisted housing units must benefit households with incomes at or below 80% of area median income. Additionally, 51% of occupants of CDBG assisted rental units must have incomes at or below 80% of area median income. CDBG-assisted housing must also meet certain definitions of affordability and must continue to remain affordable to low-income households for the life of any loan. The specific affordability requirements vary according to the type of activity for which funds are used and the amount of CDBG funding contributed to the project.

The City, its elected officials, employees and agents shall not be liable for any losses incurred from claims, suits, damages, or costs of any kind that any proposing entity may incur or pay in relation to any proposal or application and arising out of decisions by the City concerning said proposal or application associated with the administration of the Affordable Housing Program.
