A LETTER FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT

To: Citizens of the City of Mobile

From: Shadrach Collins Jr.
Superintendent of Recreation

As Superintendent of Recreation for the City of Mobile Parks and Recreation Department, I have the pleasure of announcing that the Community Activities Program Division of the Parks and Recreation Department has merged with the Neighborhood Centers Division of the Mobile Parks and Recreation Department. This new division with strengths that are highly complementary will enable us to provide a new and broader set of services to you, our customers. Both divisions are extremely proud of the quality of their employees, the quality of their work and the quality of their service. You can expect the same participant-oriented focus and the same high-quality customer service that you have come to know and expect.

Thanks,

Shadrach Collins, Jr.

TIMES: Monday–Friday, 9 a.m.–1 p.m.

SAIL CENTERS: For those seniors who wish to have a tasty, nutritious meal combined with social activities and fellowship, Senior Activity for Independent Living (SAIL) Centers are open Monday through Friday with transportation available in most cases. SAIL centers offer a variety of health promotion events, medical screenings, and offer a regular exercise program that acts as an excellent osteoporosis preventative. Recreation is a regular part of SAIL Center operations.

HOME DELIVERED MEALS: The local SAIL centers serve hot meals which are delivered to homebound seniors. Center managers conduct assessments to determine each person's eligibility (subject to availability). The Home Delivered Meals Program allows seniors to remain in their homes and also provides them with daily socialization.
