5.4 Inspection Period. Upon the execution of this Agreement, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser copies of the survey and title information described in Section 5 above, any environmental studies or reports, and any engineering plans and related reports or studies, and all service contracts and agreements in Seller's possession relative to the Real Property. Unless Purchaser and Escrow Agent receive express written instructions from Seller on or before the expiration of the Permitting Period that it is exercising its right to terminate the Agreement, Seller shall be deemed to have not terminated this Agreement. If Seller does give such notice of termination, the Escrow Agent shall refund the Earnest Money to Purchaser. As a condition precedent to the effective exercise of Purchaser's option to terminate this Agreement Purchaser shall give Seller notice in writing, in accordance with the notice provisions of this Agreement, which notice shall state, with particularity, the alleged breach or default or non-performance of Seller and the action required by Seller to cure such breach. Seller shall have a period of ten (10) days after receipt of such notice to cure the alleged default, breach, or non-performance to Purchaser's reasonable satisfaction, and to thereby cure the default and prevent termination of this Agreement.

13.2. Purchaser's Default. 13.2.1. If the sale and purchase of the Property contemplated by this Agreement is not consummated because of the Purchaser's default, the Escrow Agent shall pay the Earnest Money to Seller as the Seller's full liquidated damages, the parties hereto acknowledging that it is impossible to estimate more precisely the damages which might be suffered by Seller upon Purchaser's default. The right to receive the Earnest Money as full liquidated damages is Seller's sole and exclusive remedy in the event of default hereunder by Purchaser, and Seller hereby waives and releases any right to (and hereby covenants that it shall not) sue Purchaser for specific performance under this Agreement or to prove that Seller's actual damages exceed the amount of said sums.

13.2.2. As a condition precedent to the effective exercise of Seller's option to terminate this Agreement, or take other action, pursuant to the provisions of Section 13.2.1 above, Seller shall give Purchaser notice in writing, in accordance with the notice provisions of this Agreement, which notice shall state, with particularity, the alleged breach or default or nonperformance of Purchaser and the action required by Purchaser to cure such breach. Purchaser shall have a period of ten (10) days after receipt of such notice to cure the alleged default, breach, or non-performance to Seller's reasonable satisfaction, and to thereby cure the default and prevent termination of this Agreement. If Purchaser does not cure said default then this Agreement shall terminate and Seller and Purchaser shall be relieved of all obligations under this Agreement, except for those obligations which are expressly provided to survive the termination of this Agreement.
