

Color Me

Concrete Mixer

Interesting Facts About Concrete Mixer Trucks

In most cases, a concrete plant is located far from the construction site. The concrete is transported by a concrete mixer truck, which has a spinning drum that mixes cement, aggregate (such as sand, gravel, or crushed rock), and water while the truck is en route. Sharp blades inside the spinning drum prevent the concrete from hardening during its trip from the concrete plant to the construction site.